HOME FOOTBALL.

WIN FOR WALES.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT.]

London, Feb. 28, 10.10 p.m.

The result of the Rugby football match between the Welsh team and the French representatives was as follows:—

Wales 15 points

France nil.

French Rugby enthusiasts met with a severe disappointment on Jan. 28th also. Inspired by the memory of their victory over Scotland, when they won their first international match, they entered the field at Twickenham with the full expectation of being able at least to extend the English fifteen. They failed. Defeat, however, did not mean disgrace. England had paid the Frenchmen the compliment of picking their best team—practically the same as that which met Wales—and in the circumstances it was not surprising that the gallant Gauls went under.

The game resulted as follows:—
ENGLAND... 37 points.
FRANCE... nil.

THE CRISIS.

GRAND COUNCIL WARNED TO PREPARE.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

The Chinese authorities in Mongolia have reported to Peking that thousands of Russian soldiers are advancing into the territory.

Arms and ammunition in large quantities are being sent across the border.

The Chinese Minister at St. Petersburg has telegraphed to Peking stating that Russia is sending large numbers of troops into Mongolia and Manchuria.

He warns the Grand Council to prepare for hostilities, and states that the Russian people as a whole are dissatisfied with China's reply to the demands of their Government.

In his opinion the Russians will spring a surprise upon China.

Father Nout, of the Society of Jesus, parish priest of Calcutta, and a well-known figure throughout India, has been bitten by a mad dog, and has left for Kasauli.

European capitalists are stated to have acquired nearly 10,000 acres of land in Malabar for the cultivation of rubber, of which area nearly 11,000 acres are estimated to have been planted.

THE PRIZE RING.

DRISCOLL TO MEET MATT WELLS.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT.]

London, Feb. 28, 10.10 p.m.

Jim Driscoll has declined to meet Freddy Welsh, but has accepted Matt Wells.

Driscoll is the Cardiff man who recently defeated Spike Robson, of South Shields, for the feather weight championship. Driscoll was reported as saying at the weighing-in that his contest with Robson last month would close his ring career; but the Welshman will surely defer his retirement after his wonderful exhibition at the expense of a man who, while far above the average, was yet outclassed and so thoroughly beaten that the referee found it necessary to exercise his authority before the seventh round had expired. Driscoll is in his thirtieth year. He, however, is of a type that ages slowly, and against Robson he was perhaps faster than ever before. Those witnessing the Cardiff boxer in action for the first time were astonished at the apparent simplicity of his methods; and really there is no more deceptive exponent of the noble art, for Driscoll is so eminent a master that the most difficult moves are achieved in the most effortless style. Many of his blows to Robson's head looked to carry little power; actually, however, they were reloaded with force by reason of perfect timing. The Earl of Lonsdale's gold belt is now a permanent possession of the Welshman's, and is the first of the series to be won outright, the three necessary victories having been gained versus Samman Hayes on February 14, 1910; versus Spike Robson on April 18, 1910, and January 30, 1911.]

BRIDGING THE YANGTSE.

HANKOW AND WUCHANG TO BE CONNECTED.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

It is proposed to build a bridge across the Yangtze from Wuchang to Hankow.

The Viceroy of Hupei is now in negotiation with the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank for a loan of Tls. 5,000,000 for this purpose.

The agreement has been drawn up, and provides for the repayment of the loan within ten years.

The Viceroy has already engaged foreign engineers to prepare plans for the bridge.

Their work begins to-day. [A representative of the “Telegraph” called upon the manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai bank to-day and was informed that nothing is known here of the above loan or the building of a bridge across the Yangtze, which at the point mentioned is nearly four miles wide. We, therefore, publish the above telegram with all reserve.]

THE CARNIVAL.

MEDAL PRESENTED TO AVIATOR.

[THE “TELEGRAPH” CORRESPONDENT.]

Manila, Mar. 1, 12.50 p.m.

The Citizens Gold Medal has been awarded to Aviator “Bud” Mars, who goes to Kobe to-day to carry out several flights.

He has made contracts to fly also in Australia, and his tour will commence in April.

The Manila people have decided to buy Capt. Baldwin's aeroplane, called the “Red Devil,” and it will serve as a model for local manufacture.

The “Ball of all Nations” closes the carnival for 1911. Dancing will be continued until daylight.

The carnival has been a huge success, and everybody seems to be satisfied.

BOYCOTTING.

BRITISH GOODS IN YUNNAN.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

Viceroy Li, of Yunnan, has reported to the Throne that the situation in Yunnan is still critical.

The people are intensely excited over the British advance, and propose starting a boycott of British goods in the province.

The Viceroy asks the Grand Council to open negotiations with the British Minister at once.

CHINA'S ARMY.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

During the last few days the Ministers of the Board of War have met on several occasions to discuss the best means of increasing the effectiveness of China's army.

The “Economist” strongly supports the attitude of the Hong Kong Chamber of Commerce respecting the proposed tax on jute.

The cricket committee of the Yorkshire County C.C. have decided to recommend Mr. E. J. Radcliffe as the captain of the county eleven for next season.

Telegrams.

TONG SHAO YI.

MAY BE MADE VICEROY OF MANCHURIA.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

It is rumoured here that Tong Shao-yi will be asked to return to office and accept the Manchurian Viceroyalty.

[Tong Shao Yi has already served in the Three Eastern Provinces as Governor of Mukden. His administration was conspicuously successful.]

LIANG TUN YEN.

EX-GRAND COUNCILLOR ASKED TO RETURN.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

The Grand Council has telegraphed to H.E. Liang Tun Yen, late President of the Waiwupu, asking him to return to China.

[Liang Tun Yen, since he resigned his portfolio of Minister for Foreign Affairs, has been in Germany. He is a progressive official of the modern school, like his contemporaries Yuan Shih kai and Tong Shao-yi.]

THE PLAGUE.

[“SHANGHAI” SERVICE.]

Peking, Feb. 28.

The Governor of Kirin has reported to Peking that the plague has entirely disappeared from Harbin. A few cases are still under observation at Changchun.

AN OMINOUS OUTLOOK.

The following is an extract from an article on the present plague peril in China appearing in the “Lancet”:

Should an International Commission of Plague Experts, nominated by the Great Powers, be despatched to China to deal with the epidemic, we fear that they will have a hard and uphill task before them.

In China there is, at present, no machinery for the notification of deaths, nor for registration of sanitary service, the officials of which could be trusted to carry out the measures framed by the international body of experts. There is, moreover, to be faced the dead weight of passive resistance and obstruction by the Chinese themselves.

Every circumstance unfortunately seems to favour the spread of plague, especially if introduced in the pneumonic form. We have grave fears that if the epidemic goes on increasing at its present rate, we may have to witness in China a sacrifice of human life compared with which even the Indian experiences may sink into comparative insignificance.

BARON MUMM.

LEAVES TOKIO FOR HOME.

[“INDEPENDENT NEWS” AGENCY.]

Tokio, March 1.

His Excellency Baron Mumm, German Ambassador to Tokio, leaves for home on March 11.

He entertained the members in Tokio of the International Press Association at dinner last night.

The function was a most enjoyable one.

THE PLAGUE.

RETURN OF JAPANESE EXPERT.

[“INDEPENDENT NEWS” AGENCY.]

Tokio, March 1.

Dr. S. Kitazato, the Japanese expert sent by the Tokio Government to Manchuria in connection with the plague, returned to this city yesterday.

His report on conditions in the stricken area has largely removed the anxiety entertained hitherto by the people.

BUBONIC PLAGUE.

OUTBREAK NEAR CANTON.

[THE “TELEGRAPH” CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, Feb. 28.

Bubonic plague has made its appearance in Lai Chow, and is spreading. The local authorities have, in fear of an epidemic, telegraphed to the Canton Prefect soliciting the services of some medical men to be given them to combat the scourge. On the receipt of the telegram, the Canton Prefect has sent a deputy to the Kwong Wah Medical Association in connection with the engagement of several doctors for plague-infected Lai Chow.

SALE OF OPIUM IN CALCUTTA.

Calcutta, February 1st.—There was a sale of opium to-day, and the result was as follows:—Behar chests 1,200, highest R3,485, lowest R3,480, average R3,481.38, proceeds R4,386,350; Benares chests 1,360, highest R3,400, lowest R3,400, average R3,400, proceeds R4,624,000; total chests 2,620, general average R3,439.10, and the proceeds totalled R9,010,350.

THE GIVING OF PASSPORTS.

[THE “TELEGRAPH” CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, Feb. 28.

Foreign travellers through the interior have, all along, applied for passports through their respective consuls. The passports are impressed with the mark of the Viceroy's seal, who instructs the local authorities to give them protection.

His Excellency the Canton Viceroy has now instructed the Canton Diplomatic Commissioner that in future the procedure of issuing passports will be entirely in his hands, and that His Excellency will have nothing more to do with the matter.

RUBBER SHARES.

In rubber circles matters may be stated to have been on the mend recently. What would appear to have started the ball rolling was news from Brazil that Government Banks were advancing on considerable quantities of rubber in Manaus, and that valorisation would be resorted to. This seemingly scared the “boars” and induced trade buying. At the same time the “boars” on the Stock Exchange seem to have taken alarm, whilst the actual number of shares on dealers' books, when the public likewise came in, being small, tended to push prices up. A very little apparently suffices to move rates either way.—“L. & C. Express.”

Messrs. E. S. Kadoorie & Co.'s rubber quotations from London to-day are:—

SINGAPORE SHARES.

In their weekly share circular, dated 22nd ult., Messrs. Fraser and Co. state:—Business has been more active during the week with rubber shares advancing slightly all round, in sympathy with the rise in the price of the raw material. Local rubbers have been more in evidence, with investment buying of the leading stocks. Mining shares are quiet and industrial continue firm.

Rubber.—Glenshiels have been done at L5-8-9, Tremelbyes L5-15-9, Palalings 55s., Vallambrosas 33s., London Asiatics 13s., Sungai Kapars 12s. 10.1-2d., Kampong Kunatans 13s. 3d., Duffs 11s. 6d., Bortams 7s. 3d., Bukit Clohs 6s. 3d., Merlimaus 5s. 3d., Heawoods 5s. 3d., Padang Jawas 3s. 6d., Chersonese 3s. 5d., Chimpuls 1s. 3d., Bukit Kajangs 45s. 6d. and Ledburys 65s. General.—Straits Traders are steady at quotations; Straits Steamships, part-paid, have been done at $100 premium, and Katz Brothers, deferred at $120.

CRICKET.

Noble, the former Australian captain, interviewed by the “Sun,” declared that, in his opinion, the South Africans would win the rubber.

He added: “They appear to have mastered our attack; hence my prediction. Australia does not now possess the formidable, resourceful bowlers of a few years ago.”

The Weather Forecast.

On the 1st at 11.40 a.—The barometer has fallen moderately in Wladivostok and over W. Japan, and risen over China, particularly in the North. The depression lying over the Gulf of Pechili yesterday, is moving into the Western part of the Sea of Japan. Pressure appears to be high over Western China. The monsoon will freshen again along the coast and over the China Sea. Hongkong Rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. to-day, 0.00 inches.

WORLD'S NEWS.

London, February 11.—A fire broke out, this morning, at Messrs. Cammell, Laird & Co.'s shipyard at Birkenhead, where a super “Dreadnought” is being built. Heavy damage was caused. The fire at Birkenhead was confined to mould loft which was gutted. The minor plans of the super “Dreadnought” were destroyed, but can be replaced. The “Daily Chronicle” states that the increase in the Navy Estimates will not be considerable, nothing like the four millions reported.

The “Daily Chronicle” states that negotiations are now proceeding for the recognition of the London Institution as part of London University. It is proposed to make the Institution a City College for Oriental languages and higher commercial subjects, with the special view to meeting the demand for a more highly-trained class of British servants in Eastern lands.

London, Feb. 13.—The Imperial Government has received the agenda papers for the Imperial Conference from the Dominions, with the exception of Canada's. The Colonial Office says they will be published shortly. Meanwhile, it is not able to discuss details.

UNDOING A DIVORCE.

KING'S PROCTOR IN CHINA.
A TASK FOR THE MISSIONARY.

Missionaries in West China have to turn their hands to almost everything, and if they happen to be working among the tribesmen then they can never be sure what the work of the morrow will be. All kinds of difficulties and troubles are brought to them. At one time they are planning how to destroy a couple of man-eating tigers, at another time they are taking steps to defeat the schemes of an old wizard, whose trade has almost ceased since the people became adherents of the Christian Church. To-day it is drawing up plans for a little country school, to-morrow it is teaching the native preachers how to fight the dreaded and very prevalent typhoid fever.

One question which is always producing difficulties is the marriage question. In the old days, and these old days were less than seven years ago, there was practically no marriage tie, the only real tie was the mutual love for the little ones. The children saved the situation. When husbands or wives got tired of each other and desired to separate they could do so with very little difficulty. The coming of Christianity is altering all this and gradually building up homes in which husbands and wives respect and love each other. The victory is not, however, won without many defeats. Here and there even members of the church who are married get tired of each other, and now and again there is a reversion to the customs of the old days, when divorce was easy and no one protested against it. Why not end an intolerable situation by the simple method of separation and marrying elsewhere? What difference would that make to their new Christianity?

A fortnight ago eight men and a young woman were in my front room, writes a missionary. There were not enough chairs for all to sit down, but we never noticed that. For an hour we all stood taking part in a very excited discussion. At the beginning no one knew how the matter would end. I knew how I wanted it to end, and so did the tall Miao preacher, who stood by my side, and every now and again smiled out of one eye while he closed the other.

The young woman is twenty years of age. Six years ago she was married to her husband, who was then a boy of twelve. It was in the year of famine, and her father had sold her to the father of the boy for nine ounces of silver. For awhile the children were happy. Then came a change. The two fathers quarrelled, and being cousins the quarrel showed no sign of ending. One thing led to another, until at last the father of the boy so treated the daughter of his enemy that she ran away home. "So matters went on for two years, and at last the boy's father demanded the repayment of the nine ounces of silver. Some other people began to interfere, and when the case came to my knowledge the young husband and wife were separated and the father of the latter had repaid two cows as the price of his daughter's release. Both the young people had been baptized. The father of the boy is a bad-tempered, overbearing man. He began to take steps to get another wife for his son, and tried to get a pretty young girl who lives a few miles from my home. She refused the offer of marriage.

When the case reached this stage it was brought to my notice, and I asked all the parties concerned to come to see me. That was why I had so many visitors in my front room. The fathers evidently hoped that I should allow the divorce to stand.

We began at first with some preliminary talk. Had the people been Chinese we might have spent half an hour inquiring into each other's pedigree and discussing the customs and manners of Western countries before either of us dared to come to the subject in hand. The tribespeople are not so bad as the Chinese, and so before very long we were in the heart of the subject.

I thought at first that the young people were tired of each other, but the boy-husband stood over very close to his young wife and seemed not at all unwilling to be by her side.

The old men were obdurate, and at one time there was a storm. When I heard that the girl's father had paid two cows as the price of his daughter's redemption I told him what I thought of him. Then I suddenly turned on the other father and said, "You have received two cows in place of the nine ounces of silver you gave years ago. What are you going to give in return for all the work the girl did for you in your home?" Then I asked the girl if she had worked when in her husband's home. She flashed out immediately with a long list of things she had done, feeding pigs, carrying water, cutting bracken for the stables, reaping oats at harvest-time, &c. "And what, I required, 'would an ordinary labourer get a day for such work?' " "About three halfpence," was the reply. "What about the girl's wages?" At this question the fiery father of the boy broke into a storm. But he soon found that others could play at that electric work.

We were still making no headway. Every now and again someone would say, "Let the teacher decide what shall be done," hoping that I should recognize what had been done.

Hoping for some way out of the difficulty, I then asked the father of the boy why he had tried to get Miss Precious Happiness as a second wife for his son. Here the girl stepped in with a real touch of woman's nature and said, "They wanted to get a pretty wife this time, some one better looking than me." I tried to score one by quoting the common Miao saying, "Women with handsome faces have untrustworthy hearts."

Then I made an appeal to the young people. "Did your husband ever beat you?" "No." "Did your husband ever curse you?" "No."

"Did your wife ever beat you?" The little husband answered quite seriously "No" to this question, as well as to the second. "And were you happy together?" "Yes," was the reply.

Turning to the old men and smiling as well as I could, I said, "Why not let the young people have a happy time together? Why let your quarrels blight their lives? You had your good times in the old days. Why not let them enjoy themselves now?"

"The break came at this point. 'But what about the cows?' was asked. 'Oh, you keep one of them as a present from both of you to the young people, and return the other to the girl's father. Then let the father of the girl go down to my stable and pick out the best calf there is there, and that shall be a present from the teacher who shares in redeeming the girl, now no longer sold, but given in marriage.'

It was agreed that husband and wife should come on Sunday, and that the whole congregation should pray for their happiness, and after that the boy-husband should lead his wife back again.

After the discussion was ended the daughter, and her father remained behind. She cried bitterly, saying, "I like my husband, but I am afraid of his father. If we could only have a home of our own we should be all right." I told her that as I was giving one of the cows to help redeem her, I had now a share in her, and would see that the husband's father behaved himself. If he does not we would manage to get them a house of their own.

The next day the cow was returned and the calf in the stable chosen.

On Sunday the two young people came. They sat in the front, their story was told, and the whole congregation prayed for their happiness.

Eighteen and twenty went home together, and I hope they will live happy ever afterwards.

This discovery is revolutionizing all the present methods of treatment for digestive ailments. The old theory of purging, bismuth, starving, purging, etc., etc., is to be done away with. This great vegetable substance is compounded with other ingredients to facilitate the working, and possesses the peculiar properties of acting on the bowels without purging or otherwise weakening the patient. This is BILE BEANS; the substance that relaxes the bowels has about the same action as the natural bile. BILE BEANS are purely vegetable, and a course of them will probably successfully out the most chronic cases of Liver and Stomach Troubles, all other ailments that owe their origin to defective bile flow, assimilation, and digestion. These Beans are placed on the market in such a form that anyone can take them without medical supervision, and as the price is so very low, there are few homes that cannot afford to always have a box on the shelf for emergency.

THE Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, WED., MARCH 1, 1911

INTO THE BREACH.

We publish this evening the interesting information that two of the most progressive mandarins in China have been recalled to Peking, and, to paraphrase Shakespeare, we may say in this connection, "And now the age of China is alarmed." Peking's appeal for such it is—to Tong Shao-yi and Liang Tung-yen to resume office is symptomatic of China at the present moment. It indicates the opposition to what has been termed Chinese progress, and, at the same time, the recognition in government circles of the power of the same movement. Liang, recently president of the Waiwapi, was forced to resign his post by the reactionary tactics of the Manchu clique, and Tong Shao-yi, one of the most progressive, highly-educated and patriotic officials that China ever had, was compelled to vacate the presidency of the Yuchuanpu because this same clique made it impossible for him to carry out the reforms which he deemed, and which are necessary to the development of China's internal resources. Both these highly efficient statesmen were in office at a time when China was not confronted with pressing diplomatic difficulties. They then endeavoured to exercise their knowledge of what is needed and were in consequence opposed, and finally defeated, by the ultra-conservative section of the government. Now that China finds herself in conflict with her most powerful neighbours, these same discouraged officials are asked to step once more into the breach. We hope, but we do not anticipate, that Tong Shao-yi and Liang Tung-yen will be eager to place themselves again in the false positions which they were forced so recently to vacate. Contemporary with Yuan Shih-k'ai, they are, like him, men of great ability and individuality, who recognise the faults of which China is the heir. They are feared by the hide-bound conservatives of the Forbidden City, who, at the same time, have been forced to realise that such men are the only hope of China. Neither Tong, nor Liang Tung-yen are friends to foreigners in as much as they are strenuous supporters of "China for the Chinese." In themselves the best example of what modern education can do for China, they fully realise that the great nation which they have helped to direct is capable of being a law unto itself, and of a development which the most idealistic prophesy has not yet pictured. It is impossible not to feel sympathy with China in her present difficulties, but these same, force retrogressive Peking to recognise the merits, the value, and the need for, such men as Tong Shao-yi, Liang Tung-yen and their great comrade Yuan Shih-k'ai, the situation cannot be regarded as wholly unfavourable. These are the men that China needs. They are the men that the representatives of Western nations will hope to see in power, because they are proud of their nationality, ambitious for its recognition and capable of developing the same.

SUPREME COURT.

At the Supreme Court this morning, before the Chief Justice, an interesting Chinese family case involving a large amount, was heard. The plaintiffs, the Li Po Hung Bank, sued the Yik Lung Bank and seven other Chinese signatories of a letter of guarantee securing the sum of $82,212.40 being as to $80,541 the amount paid by the plaintiff to the Imperial Bank and as to the balance thereof expenses incurred by the plaintiff in raising the said amount on mortgage as surety for the defendants under a contract in writing dated 20th May 1904, whereby the plaintiff and the defendants guaranteed the repayment to the said Imperial Bank all sums to the extent of $150,000, as might become due to the said Bank.

Mr. Alabaster appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Potter appeared for three of the defendants.

Mr. Alabaster said that the case was concisely this. These were brothers suing each other, plaintiff suing his brother and his mother—she might be a concubine but the male defendants were the sons of the late Lee Sing. One of the sons named Li Pok contracted a number of debts at the time, when he was manager of the Lip Hong Bank and pressure was brought to bear on the various members of the family to pay his debts, and eventually a letter of guarantee was signed in which the members of the family guaranteed to pay all such debts up to $115,000. Plaintiff had under this guarantee, paid the sum of $80,000. They now claimed from the co-signatories of the guarantee for contribution. In their defence all of them said that there was a subsequent agreement in which they all agreed to waive any right of contribution which they might have against each other under the guarantee, but two of them said in addition to that defence that they had a set-off. That then placed the burden of proof on the defendant. Now they asked for judgment on the point whether they were liable to contribution. By the principle of equity the sum should be divided equally amongst all the guarantors. One of the guarantors, the Hip Loong Bank, might be disregarded as they were insolvent and could not pay up. It would be noticed that in their answer they denied that they had raised certain mortgage for the purpose of carrying out that family agreement. The question the Court had to decide was whether the alleged family arrangement waived the right of contribution to the guarantee or whether those people who had pleaded a set-off had proved it. The onus of proof was therefore on the defendant. By the family arrangement the right under the previous guarantee was waived and if not waived whether the two defendants who had set up a set-off had proved their set-offs. It was for the defendants, who had so pleaded, to respectively prove either the waiver or the set-off.

Mr. Potter said that the burden of proof was doubtless on him, but to cut proceedings as much as possible, he had admitted everything. He had admitted as much as he could but still there were some points still incumbent on the plaintiff to prove. The question was what the defendants had to contribute. That was not a matter for the Registrar. It was a contribution for a liquidated amount. Unless it was proved they could not know what was the amount they had to contribute. In many cases it would be eminently desirable for the defendant to begin because he had the last word—they found Counsel striving for the last word.

Mr. Alabaster said that the original guarantee had been lost but he had asked his friend to produce a copy. They had admitted it on the pleadings.

Mr. Potter said that they only admitted signing a guarantee, but this did not relieve the plaintiff from the onus of putting the guarantee in evidence. The plaintiff alleged that the original was lost and proposed to put in a copy. Counsel's copy differed from that of the plaintiff. The defendants only admitted signing the original. Counsel suggested that his friend should put the plaintiff in the box and prove his case.

A lengthy discussion ensued on the points raised.

Mr. Alabaster then called Mr. C. E. H. Beavie, who stated that he was a solicitor and conducted the case on behalf of the plaintiff, for his firm. He was in custody of the original document which was lost. The letter of guarantee was originally in the hands of the Imperial Bank of China, which was no longer in existence. Prior to the trial of this case the usual notice to admit was served. It was usual to serve such notices. On the notice being served a solicitor called and the copies were compared and only one or two clerical errors of no importance were found. The solicitor on the other side then said that there would be no objection to the copy of the guarantee being used. Witness had therefore made no further search for the original copy. To the best of his knowledge the original was not now in existence.

Further argument ensued on the production of the original copy of the letter of guarantee.

LAUNCH OF A BLUE FUNNEL LINER.

Shortly before high water on 31st of January, Messrs. Workman, Clark and Co., Limited, Belfast, launched from their North Yard the steamer Neleus, built to the order of Messrs. Alfred Holt and Co., Liverpool, this being the 28th vessel constructed by them for Messrs. Holt and Company's Blue Funnel Line. The new vessel is a duplicate of the steamers Persous and Thebesus, which were built by Messrs. Workman, Clark and Co., about three years ago, and is intended for service to the Far East. The Neleus is 457 feet in length, with a gross tonnage of about 6,700, and has been constructed on the fore and aft girder principle, which ensures unobstructed cargo space in the holds and 'tween decks, thus facilitating the stowage of the largest class of goods.

THE CANTON BUND.

A RIGHT OF PROPERTY.

(The "Telegraph" Correspondent.) Canton, March 1. The French Consul at Shumoen has written to the Canton Viceroy, drawing His Excellency's attention to the question of a right of property. It appears that work is progressing on the 7th section of the Bund, which touches the French Concession or property. The Consul asks the Viceroy to take steps to prevent the French property from being made use of; or, if it be unavoidable to pay compensation.

On the receipt of the communication from the Consul, His Excellency the Viceroy instructed the Canton Diplomatic Commissioner to hold an inquiry in conjunction with the Bund Works Department, and to consider the matter carefully preparatory to giving the French Consul a reply.

GERMANS IN CHINA.

According to the "Tagblatt," Germany is preparing an important campaign to break the Anglo-American monopoly of education in China.

A group of capitalists, headed by Dr. Krupp von Bohlen-Halbach, the titular chief of the Krupp works, and a number of the leading banks, have undertaken to raise between £75,000 and £100,000 for the purpose of founding in China three great engineering schools, one of which will have the proportions of a university. Dr. Krupp von Bohlen-Halbach has started the subscription list with £5,000. Their object is to substitute German methods and German influence now predominating in China.

The "Tagblatt" points out that almost all the Chinese viceroys employ English or American consulting engineers. Henceforth Germans will aspire to these influential and lucrative positions. The underlying idea of the entire project is to promote German industrial progress in China at the expense of the British and Americans.

PLAN FOR THE INVASION OF FRANCE.

For some days past there has been circulating in the diplomatic world of the Continent a most extraordinary rumour, which is believed to be absolutely true by experienced chiefs of the diplomatic service.

The story is that after the death of Leopold II. of Belgium there fell into hands which communicated the "find" to the French Government, a complete plan of operations for the invasion of France through Belgium, which had been arranged with the General Staff of a Foreign Power.

At the date in question Leopold II. was extremely exasperated and alarmed by a humanitarian agitation concerning the Congo, and he had been led to turn to the Foreign Power in question for protection and friendship.

The price of the protection was the plan of campaign which is now in the possession of France.

CANTON'S FINANCIAL TROUBLES.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT]

Canton, Feb. 28.

The Provincial Treasury is at present in financial straits. The last day of the 3rd moon has been fixed as the date for the total suppression of gambling in Canton, and of course, this means an annual loss of a large source of revenue. Taxes on salt, opium, spirits, &c., have just been enforced, and cannot be hoped to bring in sufficient money to replace the loss sustained through the suppression of gambling.

The arrears of revenue due to the provincial government by So Ping Shu, the gambling monopolist, is rendering the financial position of the department all the more strained. Moreover, the monthly remittance to the Capital of money in connection with foreign indemnities and loans is very pressing, and cannot be delayed. Every month the Treasury has to meet the payment of salaries to the land and naval forces, and the expenditure in connection with the upkeep of same. All these have to be settled every month, as well as the expenses incurred by various official departments.

The Provincial Treasurer has before him a problem difficult to be solved. Yesterday he went to see His Excellency, the Canton Viceroy, and reported on the critical condition of the Treasury.

THE EMPIRE THEATRE.

There was a large house at the Empire Cinematograph Theatre last night and the audience were entertained to a thoroughly good show, of which they did not fail to show their appreciation. Quite a number of new films were put on the screen and heartily enjoyed by the spectators. The Donnelly family won admiration from all in their songs and dances. Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly are a remarkably clever couple and Little Kitty is irresistible; while Baby Tommy goes through his stops with the cleverness and assurance of a veteran. The Donnellys were encored each time they appeared. Miss Dollie Swift, who is making her farewell appearances here, was also the recipient of cordial recalls for her contributions. Mr. Denis Carney gave a very smart display of still dancing and sang some good comic songs.

FANCY DRESS BALL.

The management of the Victoria Skating Rink successfully organised a dancing and skating carnival last night. The rink was tastefully decorated with bunting, and on each side a magnificent skate made of flowers was hung up, and was a blaze of electric light. The rink was crowded with skaters, dancers and spectators, and among them many charming costumes were seen. The first portion of the evening was set down for dancing, and this lasted till 11 a.m. when the costume prizes were awarded. The "Honey Shickle and the Bee" carried off the first prize for the best costume, a gold bracelet from the Oriental Brewery Co., and a silver mirror from the proprietor of the Skating Rink, while the second prize was captured by Mrs. Oxberry, dressed as a "bat." After the presentation of the prizes, the time was devoted to skating, prizes being awarded to the best two lady skaters. Mrs. Bonnas won the first prize for the best lady skater, and the second prize was awarded to Miss Queenie Lawrence. The former lady gave a fine exhibition and was loudly applauded by the crowd. Dancing lasted till 1 a.m.

The Band of the 13th Rajputs, under Bandmaster Cole, was present.

DECLARATION OF LONDON.

HONGKONG'S ATTITUDE.

The London Chamber of Commerce has received a telegram to the following effect from the Chamber of Commerce in Hongkong:—"Hongkong Government having asked Hongkong Chamber to express opinion regarding the Declaration of London, they have replied strongly endorsing and supporting the finding of your Special Committee. Hongkong Chamber have requested the Governor to telegraph this to the Secretary of State."

LAUNCH AT TAIKOO.

LAST NIGHT.

At Taikoo Dockyard last night at 8 o'clock the new steamship Milay, built for the Philippines Army service, was successfully launched, the christening ceremony being performed by Mrs. H. F. Carmichael in presence of a goodly number of spectators.

The Milay has been built by the Taikoo Dockyard and Engineering Company to the order of the Chief Quartermaster, Philippines Division, U.S.A. Army, Manila, under the supervision of Messrs. Carmichael and Clarke. She will be employed largely in conveying munitions of war and provisions to the various military stations throughout the Philippines, and is specially fitted for the carriage of frozen produce. On the forward deck is a powerful steam winch capable of lifting weights up to ten tons. She is also fitted with a steam windlass and steam steering gear.

The Milay has been built in accordance with the requirements of Lloyd's and the Board of Trade. Her length is 140 ft., breadth (moulded) 26 ft., depth (moulded) 13 ft. 6 in. Her motive machinery consists of two sets of triple expansion engines, having cylinders I.P. 10 ins. dia., I.P. 16 ins. dia., L.P. 26 ins. dia., by 18 ins. stroke. Steam is supplied by two cylindrical multitubular boilers 11 ft. diameter by 10 ft. 3 ins. long, at a working pressure of 180 lbs. per square inch.

It is expected that the Milay will be ready for sea in five or six weeks. Messrs. Carmichael and Clarke will hand her over in Manila.

CANTON BRIGANDAGE.

CHILD HELD FOR RANSOM.

[THE "TELEGRAPH" CORRESPONDENT]

Canton, Mar. 1.

On the night of 26th instant a daring armed robbery was committed in the eastern outskirts of the city. One small boy was taken away for ransom, and several victims of the robbery were either killed or seriously wounded. The robbers made good their escape with a large booty, although mounted police were patrolling the place, and a company of braves was stationed in the vicinity. The news of the outrage reached the ears of the Viceroy next morning, and he at once severely reprimanded the local civil and military authorities for their neglect of duty in checking the progress of brigandage in the districts under their jurisdiction.

The officials are now required by the Viceroy to apprehend those connected with this outrage, and to recover the stolen child, under penalty of dismissal.
